HOUSEHOLD LIABILITY INVESTIGATION

Watershed Claims Services have been involved in the investigation of household liability claims since their inception in 1997. Our investigators' background in general liability investigation means that Watershed Claims Services have a wealth of experience in investigating all types of liability disputes associated with a household policy.

We have a wealth of experience in household liability claims, including

- Tree root encroachment
- Dog bites
- Water leaks
- Spread of fire
- Household staffing claims
- Trampoline accidents
- Slips/trips and falls
- Personal liabilities

We would welcome the opportunity of speaking with you in detail, to offer a bespoke investigation service, with a reasoned decision on liability, together with the collation of all evidence on those cases where liability should be denied.

The experience of our staff allows Watershed to maintain focus on fraud, liability and quantum, whilst still meeting the expectations of the Insured, on what are sensitive issues.
